

Standing On God's Holy Hill

We have a story to tell!

1. Why do we go to such lengths to be God pleasers?

2. What do people see as they watch God's representatives?

1 LORD, who may dwell in your sanctuary?
Who may live on your holy hill?

2 He whose walk is blameless
and who does what is righteous,
who speaks the truth from his heart
3 and has no slander on his tongue,
who does his neighbor no wrong
and casts no slur on his fellowman,

4 who despises a vile man

but honors those who fear the LORD, who keeps his oath
even when it hurts,

5 who lends his money without usury and does not accept a bribe against the innocent.

He who does these things will never be shaken.

LORD, who may dwell in your sanctuary?
Who may live on your holy hill?

God's answer:
Those who live blamelessly
He whose walk is blameless
and who does what is righteous,
who speaks the truth from his heart

God knows we're mistake prone.

But “being blameless” doesn't mean without mistakes – it refers to one's lifestyle.

LORD, who may dwell in your sanctuary?
Who may live on your holy hill?

God's answer:
“Watch your mouth”

(he will have) no slander on his tongue,
who does his neighbor no wrong
and casts no slur on his fellowman,

Proverbs 10:19

When words are many, sin is not absent, but he who holds his tongue is wise.

James 1:26

If anyone considers himself religious and yet does not keep a tight rein on his tongue, he deceives himself and his religion is worthless.

James 3:6-10

The tongue is a fire, a world of evil among the parts of the body. It corrupts the whole person, sets the whole course of his life on fire, and is itself set on fire by hell. All kinds of animals, birds, reptiles and creatures of the sea are being tamed and have been tamed by man, but no man can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison.

With the tongue we praise our Lord and Father, and with it we curse men, who have been made in God's likeness. Out of the same mouth come praise and cursing. My brothers, this should not be.

no slander on his tongue,
who does his neighbor no wrong
and casts no slur on his fellowman

God's answer:
They must be a people of integrity
who lends his money without usury and does not accept a bribe against the innocent.

The internet has caused a lot of people to lose integrity privately.
