Prayer - Bobby Lackey

The body is a unit, though it is made up of many parts; and though all it's parts are many, they form one body. So it is with Christ.

"Shout For Joy!"

"Like a victorious locker room," says Philip Yancey, "church is a place to exult, to give thanks, to celebrate the good news that all is forgiven, that God is love, that victory is certain."

Have you ever noticed how the celebration goes after a World Series, Super Bowl, or Junior Soccer Match? The players who made errors, missed their assignments, and dropped passes are just as excited and happy as the ones who hit home runs or kicked winning goals. And if you're on Christ's team, you get to shout for joy over what He has done and to march in the victory parade.

But somebody says she doesn't feel like celebrating. Another pipes up to say he is nothing but a loser. "My health is rotten!" protests someone. "I'm on the verge of losing my job, and I don't know how we can keep from losing our house," cries another.

Listen up! You're not a "loser." And despite the distress, sleepless nights, or uncertain markets, you still have reason to cheer - if you know Jesus Christ.

Think about sports memorabilia for a moment. If you've ever walked through a sports museum you've seen a collection of bats, balls, jerseys, and other sports items that were too expensive to even handle - much less consider buying. A baseball that once cost only a few dollars is worth several thousand because Babe Ruth held it in his hands and wrote his name on it. A football that might sell for $20 is worth hundreds because Troy Aikman has held and signed it.

Most baseball cards are worth the paper they're printed on. Yet a signed Ted Williams card is worth a few hundred because the legendary player once held it in his hands and signed his name on it.

Do you get the point? You're not just another name in the crowd. Even if you don't make headlines or tons of money, you're valuable. In spite of the fact that you're embarrassed about something in the past or scared of something in your future, you matter. So stop selling yourself short. If you have been held in Christ's hands and have the signature mark of the Spirit of God your heart, you are saved. You have a reason for living. And you have a future that is secure.

You're no loser! You are the child of the King!

Blessings! JR

"I Am Part of the Body of Christ"

"Do we live what we believe about the _____?"

Far too many Christians see _____ as nothing more than a _____ event.

1. Christian fellowship is: the _____ we have to one another; the purified interactions we share; the mutual _____ we have for each other's welfare; and the involvement we have with each other to encourage the living out of the things we say we believe.

Fellowship begins when we are "_____ by one Spirit into one body." (1 Cor. 12:13)

The biblical teaching concerning fellowship assumes that we will eventually understand that _____!

What's the hope of Christians?

1. Philippians 3:18-20 "For, as I have often told you before and now say again even with tears, many live as enemies of the cross of Christ. Their destiny is destruction, their god is their stomach, and their glory is in their shame. Their mind is on earthly things. But our citizenship is in heaven."
