The Fingerprint of God

Have you ever been inspired by a song? It happens to me all the time. Every now and then I share them with you; however, they don't always translate into sermon material.

Stephen Curtis Chapman came out with this song several years ago. This is not the entire song, but you'll get the idea. It goes like this:

*Never has there been and never again
Will there be another you
Fashioned by God's hand
And perfectly planned
To be just who you are
And what He's been creating
Since the first beat of your heart
Is a living breathing priceless work of art...*

(chorus)

*I can see the fingerprints of God
When I look at you
I can see the fingerprints of God
And I know it's true
You're a masterpiece
That all creation quietly applauds
And you're covered with the fingerprints of God*

*Just look at you
You're a wonder in the making
Oh, and God's not through, no
In fact, He's just getting started...
(back to chorus)*

Jesus came across an expert in the law who had a very difficult time understanding Lev. 19.

1. Jesus told him a "neighbor" story.

"Why don't people love their neighbor as themselves?"

I. They don't see strangers as being their neighbor.

II. They're afraid someone will take advantage of them.

1. James 2:8; Proverbs 19:17; Isa 58:6

2. God takes this loving our neighbor stuff seriously!

III. Sometimes we think a little too seriously of ourselves.
