Disrespect to a Good Samaritan

Jesus' Parable of the Good Samaritan is found at Luke 10:25-37. Even people who have never read the story know the concept of being a Good Samaritan. American legal statutes use the term and contain protections for people who attempt to render aid to injured persons at the site of an automobile accident or following a heart attack. Those statutes protect us from lawsuits when we try to do the right thing by helping one another.

There was a story about a would-be Good Samaritan who essentially got mugged for his trouble! Not physically, mind you. But verbally. As the event was reported by the ABC News Network, here is what happened.

Kyle Osborn of Harrisonville, Missouri, found an envelope. It was lying on the ground outside Sutherlands Hardware Store, and he stooped over to pick it up. He was as shocked as I would have been to look inside and find it full of cash. To be more specific, the envelope contained $1,200.

Instead of sticking the envelope under his shirt and finding a few buddies to throw a Finders-Keepers Party, he did the morally correct thing. The 29-year-old auto detailer started looking around for the person who had lost it. He walked around the hardware store asking various customers if any of them had lost anything. One man said he had lost an envelope with money in it.

Osborn produced the envelope and handed it over to the fellow. Are you ready for this? Want to hear the man's excited and grateful response?

"I hope it's all there," he said.

When the people at Sutherlands found out about the man's disrespectful and thankless behavior, they did their best to do right by Osborn. They put together a gift bag of items from the store, along with a $50 gift card. They thought it just wasn't right for honesty to go unacknowledged and unappreciated.

Osborn was asked about the treatment he got. "Just because [somebody's got] a beard and tattoos and is dirty doesn't mean they're bad people," he said.

I don't know about the original Good Samaritan. He might have been dirty from travel on the hot, dusty Jerusalem-Jericho Highway. My best guess is that he had a beard, as most adult males do in that part of the world. And if the Jewish man who had been mugged and robbed was conscious as he approached, his heart might have raced because of the long-standing tension between Jews and Samaritans. After he recovered, though, I hope he said "Thank you!" instead of "I thought for sure you were going to finish me off."

Yes, it is right to do the right thing just because it is right. But ingratitude will always be wrong – and an assault on the Good Samaritans of our world.

A NIGHT OUT WITH PUBLIC SAFETY

September 15th—5pm to 8pm
Oxford Civic Center Lower Parking Lot

This is a community event organized by the Oxford Police Department to promote police-community partnerships and neighborhood camaraderie to make our neighborhoods better and safer places to live. We've been invited to participate and to provide some children's activities. This is a great outreach opportunity for us in that it allows the public to see Betta View out in the community. It lets them see the joy we have as Christians and gives us the opportunities to share God's love. Make plans to come out and help us meet our community!

We need candy donations so we can stock the booth with some sweet treat handouts—

A box will be set up in the foyer for your donations!
