A Pat on the Back

Hey church. Congratulations! Our recent Friends and Family Day was a wonderful success and a testimony to what can happen when God's people decide to work toward a common purpose. We set an attendance goal of 350 and far exceeded it (392). I still smile when I think of it.

If you weren't here, I wish you could have been. The voices blending in worship made me pause for a moment just to listen (breathtaking). The comments from visitors were encouraging. The fellowship hall was beautiful (kudos to the food group 2). The fellowship was heavenly.

Of course I would encourage us to keep up the good work. Continue inviting people to see if they would like to partner with us in kingdom work. Just imagine if each one of us led one person to Jesus a year. And that person in turn led another person to Jesus per year. The kingdom of God in Oxford and beyond would expand exponentially.

Because we are disciple makers we can't just stand still and wait for people to come to us. That's why next Sunday night (16th) we are going to be out at Oxford Lakes from 4:00-6:00. We will spend some time in devotion, then share a meal, all while being part of our larger civic community. Please invite your friends and family to join us let our lights shine.

Blessings!
