A New Year's Prayer for 2017

Holy God of Heaven and Earth,

I know that a thousand years are as a day to You, but we humans are bound up in time. As a new year is beginning, please teach me to care more about people and less about money; to enjoy my work but not let it enslave me; and laugh more easily than I did last year.

As I prepare for 2017, help me to remember things that are easy to forget, like: it might well be my last year; that some people are counting on me; and that You have things for me to do.

Lord, with the things I have accumulated over the years, please let me shake off the monotony of life; try some new things in this New Year; and mend some broken fences.

And, Father of Mercies, please teach me in this new and unspoiled year to lighten up and enjoy children, sunsets, reading, and long walks; avoid quarrels and work at being a peacemaker in this world; and start next year with fewer regrets.

I cannot know what this year will bring, and I am grateful for that! But help me to eat less junk food; exercise and take better care of my body; and learn to enjoy the simple pleasures of life.

Above all other things, Father, I want to be your instrument for easing somebody's too-heavy load; relieving some sad person's misery; and introducing some lost soul to Jesus.

Come what may in the New Year, may we live it for Your glory, within Your will, and to Your delight.

We pray in the name of Jesus. Amen.

New Year's 2017

Philippians 3:10-14.

"I want to know Christ and the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of sharing in His sufferings, becoming like Him in His death, 11 and so, somehow, to attain to the resurrection from the dead. 12 Not that I have already obtained all this, or have already been made perfect, but I press on to take hold of that for which Christ Jesus took hold of me. 13 Brothers, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, 14 I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus."
