Stick with It

Remain. Hang in there. Finish. Stick to it until it is done. Unfortunately, very few of us do. Human tendency is to quit too soon; to stop before we cross the finish line.

Our inability to finish what we start is seen in the smallest of things: A partly mowed lawn. A half-read book. Letters started but never completed. An abandoned diet. A car up on blocks.

Or, it shows up in life's most painful areas: An abandoned child. A cold faith. A wrecked marriage. An unevangelized world.

Any chance I'm addressing someone who is considering giving up? If I am, I want to encourage you to remain. I want to encourage you to remember Jesus' determination on the cross.

Jesus didn't quit. But don't think for one minute that He didn't think about it. He must have winced when He heard His apostles backbite and quarrel. Picture Him weep as He sat at Lazarus's tomb. Hear Him cry out as He considers the weight of it all at Gethsemane.

Did He ever want to quit? You bet. That's why His words are so amazing. "It is finished."

A cry of defeat? Not at all. If His hands hadn't been fastened down, I bet He would have pumped a triumphant fist. No, that was no cry of despair. It was a cry of completion. Victory. Fulfillment. Yes, even relief.

Are you close to quitting? Please don't do it. Are you discouraged as a parent? Hang in there. Are you weary with doing good? Do just a little more. No communication in your marriage? Give it one more shot. Can't resist temptation? Accept God's forgiveness and go one more round. Is your day framed with sorrow and disappointment? Are your tomorrows turning into nevers? Is hope a forgotten word?

"God didn't call us to be successful, just faithful."

The Land of Promise, awaits those who endure (Matthew 10:22). It is not just for those who make the victory laps. The Land of Promise is for those who simply remain to the end.

Let's endure.
